How health care is changing in your area

Open Talk Events Programme
Winter 2011-12

How health care is changing in your area

The NHS is busier than ever before – treating more people, more quickly and to higher standards – and it's also going through a gradual but radical transformation.

The transformation is all about providing better care and treatment whilst also getting the most out of NHS resources in an effective and safe way.

Come along to one of our Open Talk events to find out more and share your views.
